Task 3 – Reading comprehension.

Read the text. For numbers 1 – 10 decide whether the statements are true or false. Write T for true or F for false. There is an example at the beginning (0). Write your answers on the Answer Sheet.

According to Court House "Coffee Makes the World Go 'Round and Also Makes the World Go a Little Bonkers Sometimes" News, Stacey Pincus filed a class action lawsuit against Starbucks claiming that their Tall, Grande, Venti, and Trenta (12, 16, 24 and 30 fluid ounces, respectively), don't actually hold nearly that much actual beverage. Instead, they're filled with ice cubes and Pincus isn't paying for frozen water, ya dig? According to the lawsuit, shaken iced tea drinks were the most profitable menu addition of 2014, and she wants them to $pay up$.

"A Starbucks customer who orders a Venti cold drink receives only 14 fluid ounces of that drink — just over half the advertised amount, and just over half the amount for which they are paying," the 29-page complaint states. "In the iced coffee example, a Starbucks customer who orders and pays for a Venti iced coffee, expecting to receive 24 fluid ounces of iced coffee based on Starbucks' advertisement and marketing, will instead receive only about 14 fluid ounces of iced coffee."

What's worse, Starbucks charges more for cold drinks than for comparable hot drinks. Because of this, the lawsuit claims that Starbucks makes a higher profit off its cold beverages.

Pincus seeks to represent a class of all persons who purchased a cold drink from Starbucks in the last 10 years. She accuses Starbucks of breach of express warranty, breach of implied warrant of merchantability, negligent misrepresentation, unjust enrichment and fraud.

As a solution, Pincus says Starbucks should serve cold drinks in larger cups that would allow room for ice and delicious, life-sustaining coffee. According to TMZ, she's seeking damages in excess of $5 million.

Starbucks itself is like, "um what?!" Or, more precisely: "Our customers understand and expect that ice is an essential component of any 'iced' beverage." They also says they will "gladly remake any beverage for an unsatisfied customer."

- The story was published in Court House News. (0) T
- Stacey Pincus is taking Starbucks to court. (1) _____
- Iced tea drinks have been a part of Starbucks' menu for 4 years. (2) _____
- Starbucks' cups contain more water than coffee/tea. (3) _____
- Cold drinks are cheaper than hot drinks. (4) _____
- Starbucks earns more money on their hot drinks. (5) _____
- Starbucks is accused of getting rich in an unfair way. (6) _____
- The proposed quick fix is to put iced drinks in bigger cups. (7) _____
- Pincus wants Starbucks to pay more than $5 million. (8) _____
- Starbucks understands what the problem is. (9) _____
- If a customer is not content he/she could get another drink. (10) _____
